Summary of Objectives, Nature and Effect of the Draft Planning Agreement

Objectives of Draft Planning Agreement

The objective of the Draft Planning Agreement is to provide infrastructure, facilities and services to meet the Development and dedication of land.

Nature of Draft Planning Agreement

The Draft Planning Agreement is a planning agreement under s93F of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979 (Act). It is a voluntary agreement, under which the Developer makes Development Contributions (as defined in clause 1.1 of the Draft Planning Agreement) for various public purposes (as defined in s 93F(3) of the Act).

Effect of the Draft Planning Agreement

The Draft Planning Agreement:

- relates to the carrying out by the Developer of the Development,
- excludes the application of s 94 and s 94A of the Act to the Development,
- does not exclude the application of s 94EF of the Act to the Development,
- requires dedication of land and carrying out of Works
- is not to be registered on the title to the Land,
- imposes restrictions on the Developer transferring the Land or part of the Land or assigning an interest under the Agreement,
- provides a dispute resolution method for a dispute under the agreement, being mediation and expert determination,
- provides that the agreement is governed by the law of New South Wales, and
- provides that the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth) applies to the agreement.

Whether the Draft Planning Agreement specifies that certain requirements must be complied with before issuing of a construction certificate, occupation certificate or subdivision certificate

- This Draft Planning agreement contains requirements that must be complied with, namely the carrying out of Work and dedication of land, before Subdivision Certificates may be issued.

Assessment of the Merits of the Draft Planning Agreement

The Planning Purposes Served by the Draft Planning Agreement

The Draft Planning Agreement:

- promotes and co-ordinates the orderly and economic use and development of the Land to which the Agreement applies,
- provides land for public purposes in connection with the Development,
- provides and co-ordinates community services and facilities in connection with the Development, and
- provides increased opportunity for public involvement and participation in environmental planning and assessment of the Development.

How the Draft Planning Agreement Promotes the Public Interest

The Draft Planning Agreement promotes the public interest by promoting the objects of the Act as set out in a ss 5(a)(ii)-(v) and 5(c) of the Act.
