Conscious Connects

A practical skills development day for Western Sydney musicians

20 May, 2023, 10am-4pm

Campbelltown Arts Centre

'Conscious Connects' is a development day for emerging and mid-career Western Sydney musicians and music industry workers to enhance their music management, social media and performance skills. The development day will include workshops, practical activities, networking opportunities and take-home resources to support the development and practice of local musicians and industry.

Campbelltown Arts Centre's 'Conscious' program supports the vibrant hip-hop community of Western Sydney. Facilitated by South-West Sydney local and acclaimed hip-hop musician, L-FRESH The LION and his team at Village Boy Entertainment, 'Conscious' helps supports the development socially minded hip-hop artists, connects them with their communities and puts Western Sydney voices and stories centre stage locally and beyond.
