<sup>1</sup> An 'actual' conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and their private interests or other duties.

<sup>2</sup> A 'potential' conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with their duties as a panel member in the future.

<sup>3</sup> A 'reasonably perceived' conflict of interests is where a person could reasonably perceive that a panel member's private interests or other duties are likely to improperly influence the performance of their duties as a panel member, whether or not this is in fact the case.

Eltan Consulting is currently undertaking community consultation for the landowner on the site. I have had no direct dealings with the consultation team or the landowner, however there would be a reasonably perceived conflict of interest.
I will therefore not take part or be present for this matter.
